SEVENTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Dear Friends,

I want to welcome seminarian Hung Tran. Hung is a seminarian for the Archdiocese of Boston, and he will be with us in various ways for the next two years for his Deacon Internship, beginning with eight weeks this summer. He is a delightful young man, and I know you will make him feel at home here. We are blessed at St. Paul's so often to serve as a place of formation for our seminarians in the Harvard Catholic Center and at the parish. Welcome, Hung!

This weekend we are also welcoming the Harvard Classes of 2020 and 2021 who are celebrating their long-delayed Commencement Exercises. It is so good to have you back at St. Paul's! I also want to welcome the many alumni and alumnae who are here for various anniversaries. It's a real pleasure to have you back in Harvard Square and I hope you can participate in the Masses and receptions that we have planned at the Harvard Catholic Center. Blessings!

Next week on Friday at the noon Mass, two of our Choir School boys will enter the Catholic Church, and receive the Sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation. We are blessed to have such fine young men take this step, and we are grateful to the students, staff, and families at the Choir School and parish who have inspired this step. It's a reminder to all of us to thank God each day for the call that has been given to us!

Next week's second collection is for the seminarians of the Archdiocese of Boston. It will help us to offer a small stipend to Hung while he is with us this summer, and to support his colleagues as they continue on the road to priesthood. Thank you for your generosity.

Last week Fr. Patrick celebrated his sixth anniversary of priesthood. We are blessed to have him here at St. Paul's. His commitment to the parish and the Harvard Catholic Center is a great blessing for us all. Ad multos annos!

Thanks to all who sent along kind words of support upon my re-appointment as pastor here at St. Paul's. I love the prayer of St. Anselm for those called to leadership in the church. It begins: "O God, what have you done!!" The saints often show that the way to holiness is strengthened by a good dose of humor!

Blessed Easter Season,
Fr. Kelly

EASTER FLOWERS

It has long been the custom here at St. Paul's to request donations to help defray the cost for the plants and flowers that grace our beautiful church during the Easter season. Easter flower envelopes are available in the vestibule. Donations should be made payable to St. Paul Parish, indicating that the check is for flowers. Thank you.

EUCCHARISTIC CONGRESS - JESUS IS HERE

The Archdiocese of Boston is closing the Year of the Eucharist with a day-long Eucharistic Congress, Jesus Is Here, at the Tsongas Center in Lowell, MA on Saturday, June 18. The event will include adoration, a procession, and multiple speakers including Cardinal Seán and Bishop Robert Barron. Tickets are through the Archdiocese website. The parish will provide transportation to and from the Congress, and parish subsidies for tickets are available.

FAITH IN ACTION, IT ALL STARTS WITH YOU

We are so grateful to all of you who have helped launch a successful 2022 Catholic Appeal campaign here at St. Paul's. If you have not had a chance to do so, please consider making your gift to the Appeal today by picking up an envelope at the back of the church or make an on-line donation at www.bostoncatholicappeal.org. Participation from every household in the parish is important and every gift makes a meaningful difference in putting faith into action to support the parishes, schools, and communities within our Archdiocese. And once we reach our goal, a portion of the funds will be returned to St. Paul's. Thank you.

MEMORIAL DAY: MONDAY, MAY 30

Parish offices will be closed on Monday, May 30. Mass will be celebrated at 9:00am. Normal hours will resume on Tuesday, May 31.

MEDITATIONS BEFORE MASS

Join us in a reading of Romano Guardini's, Meditations before Mass. Meetings take place at 10:30am in Room 203. Feel free to attend as often as your schedule allows – each meditation is meaningful on its own. All are welcome.

FOOD PANTRY

Thank you to all who stepped up to help restock the food pantry over the past few weeks. We really appreciate your generosity. Despite the high temperatures, there have been a lot of requests for tea and we have run out completely. We need black tea, green tea, and herbal or other flavored tea. We also need shelf stable milk. We have found a way to source milk at a low cost, but the order has been delayed and we expect to run out before it is fulfilled. Finally, we are very grateful to those who donate paper grocery bags.

MASS INTENTIONS AT ST. PAUL'S

Mass Intentions for daily and weekend Masses are being accepted. Masses may be offered to remember those who have died, for those who are ill, as well as in thanksgiving for a birthday, anniversary or for a special intention. Please contact the Parish Office during the week for details and to reserve a particular Mass.

HOW PRISON FRIENDSHIPS TRANSFORM LIVES

Tom Ash, who worships at St. Paul's, met Brian at MCI-Norfolk prison, and visited him from 2004 until his release in 2015. During that time, Tom and Brian's lives were transformed in ways neither could have imagined in part to Support Circle. Support Circle met regularly during the months prior to Brian's release and assisted with his transition back to community life. Brian works regularly, owns his own home and is involved in providing housing and supports to individuals coming out of incarceration. Tom has friendships with other formerly incarcerated individuals and is currently supporting friends in three different prisons. Join Tom and Brian as they share memories that began many years ago and continues to the present day on Saturday, June 11, at 1:30pm, at Friends Meeting at Cambridge, 5 Longfellow Park, Cambridge.
