BAPTISM OF THE LORD

Dear Friends,

Blessed Christmas to you all, and prayers for a Happy New Year!!

Once again, the holiday bulletin schedules do not allow for a new, up to date letter to be written each week, so these words will carry us through well into the Christmas Season.

I want to thank all those who bring so much love and joy to the work of St. Paul's, especially in these days. For all those who help in liturgical ministries, in the tremendous music program, in the behind-the-scenes duties, and those who make financial contributions to the Parish, a great THANK YOU. Also, my gratitude for your support of the Clergy Trust Fund on Christmas Day.

For Fr. Salzmann, Fr. Fiorillo, Deacon Tim, and all the staff at St. Paul's, Merry Christmas to all and a blessed New Year.

God bless you,
Fr. Kelly

CHRISTMAS FLOWER THANK YOU

We thank everyone for their donations for the Christmas flowers. Your generosity helped to defray the cost of the plants and flowers that grace our beautiful church during the Advent and Christmas seasons. Thank you!

CLERGY TRUST THANK YOU

On behalf of our priests, thank you for your support of the Clergy Trust Christmas collection. If you missed the collection, you can still make a gift by visiting clergytrust.org today.

The Lord will bless his people with peace.

GOSPEL MEDITATION ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

January 9, 2022 - The Baptism of the Lord

*"We are called to live our baptism every day,
as new creatures, clothed in Christ."*

— Pope Francis

What reference point do you use when making decisions? Many times, impulse takes control and decisions are made based solely on emotion and desire. We all know that these types of decisions can often get us into trouble. When a person has a confident sense of who they are and a real understanding of what is important and of value, the likelihood of kneejerk impulsive choices diminishes. Baptism gives us what we need to make well informed and purposeful decisions. By this simple gesture, God claims us as His own and provides us with the identity and purpose we need to properly live life.

It is tremendously reassuring, when we truly embrace this revelation and realize that we no longer have to wonder about the purpose of our lives or struggle to find our way. The answer of who we are in God has been given to us. We no longer have to fumble around, trip over ourselves or walk aimlessly about. Issues surrounding the sacredness of life, the meaning of death, the protection of those most vulnerable, care for the weak and the poor, offering hospitality to those in search of a home, the purpose and proper place of work, how to create a just social order, caring for creation, and understanding our roles as heralds and stewards are just a few of the wonderful gifts baptism brings. When we make decisions based on things such as these core Gospel truths we really act as Christ himself, revealing to others the new creations that we are. This is how we live our baptism.

It is difficult to walk against the tide. Yet, that is precisely what baptism calls us to do. Although we are sinners, in need of mercy and far from perfection we are called to order our life and make decisions based upon the wisdom and guidance of Almighty God. He alone is the one who can claim us as His sons and daughters. Standing up for our principles will not make us popular. But who ever said Christianity is a popularity contest? Baptism calls us to stand up for that which goes against the grain of secularism. Standing in line with other sinners, we have our anchor to steady us in the tempests of life and God is very pleased. Forge ahead. There is nothing to fear. ©LPi

FOOD PANTRY

We are excited to share that the food pantry has received a grant from the Wagner Foundation to support this important ministry. Thank you to all who have kept the shelves stocked throughout the holiday season. Items that are currently in short supply include canisters of oats, nuts, dried fruit, herbal or other flavored tea, and bottles of 100% juice. We also welcome unopened items from holiday gift baskets that you do not plan to eat. Some of our guests enjoy trying the items that might otherwise sit in your cupboard indefinitely.

MASS INTENTIONS AT ST. PAUL'S

Mass Intentions for daily and weekend Masses are being accepted. Masses may be offered to remember those who have died, for those who are ill, as well as in thanksgiving for a birthday, anniversary or for a special intention. Please contact the Parish Office during the week for details and to reserve a particular Mass.

SANCTUARY LAMP

The Sanctuary Lamp, which burns for eight days and nights at the tabernacle, symbolizes the presence of Christ and marks the boundaries of holy space in the Church. If you are interested in learning how to donate a Sanctuary Lamp, contact Nancy at (617) 491-8400 ext. 303.

SYNOD ON SYNODALITY

Over the next several years, the Church around the world will be participating in a process called the Synod on Synodality. The Holy Father will be meeting with Bishops from across the globe in 2023 to discuss ways of improving the process by which the church on all levels is open to hearing the voices of people from all walks of life. That process will begin here in Boston now with asking as many people as possible to take a simple survey.
