THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear Friends,

The Church's liturgical calendar is so rich. This past week, we celebrated the Feast of All Saints, thanking God and honoring all those who are recognized as sure and holy guides in heaven. We welcomed many school children from area parishes that day, a number dressed as their favorite saints. Then on All Souls' Day, November 2, lifted by the splendor of Faure's Requiem sung by our Choir of Boys and Schola, we offered Mass for all who have died and are being prepared for final entrance into God's glory. What a blessing these celebrations are.

November is traditionally the month when we pray for our beloved dead in a more communal and intentional way. There are a few ways to do this. On your own, offer a rosary or some other devotion for someone who has died. You could also contact the parish office and have a Mass offered for a loved one, or the sanctuary candle lit in their memory. We also have a book located near our Lady's Shrine on the left side of the church where you can inscribe the names of deceased loved ones. Finally, there are envelopes available where you can make an offering, with loved ones being remembered silently at every Mass in November. It is a spiritual work of mercy to pray for the dead, so let's join together in this important responsibility.

You will notice a new "introduction" to the Offertory time at Mass. Our intention is that it will help us all better to connect our understanding of the offering of the gift of bread and wine with Jesus' own offering of His Body and Blood on the altar with our own offerings of the joys and struggles of our lives. As the prayer says: "Pray, friends, that my sacrifice and yours..." This offering and sacrifice also includes our financial giving, another precept of the Church, for the health and care of the parish. May this introduction deepen our appreciation of a moment that may sometimes seem purely mechanical and disconnected from the spiritual action of the Mass into one rich in meaning and purpose.

With that, I have spoken and written about the present financial affairs of the parish and the considerations we are making as we move forward. Some points I would reiterate: a request for all to consider participation in our increased offertory 25/52 Initiative (a commitment of $25.00 each of the 52 weeks of the year), making regular use of the electronic giving options (with our updated Venmo and QR codes), personal prayer and planning regarding the Parish Grand Annual which will begin on November 17, and steps being taking to involve the student and young adult communities in the ongoing financial support of the various communities here. Together, we can continue to strengthen our resources as we worship and proclaim Jesus Christ to world! Please do consider participation in the 25/52 Initiative, or however you might be able to increase your weekly support. Many, many thanks!

We have spoken and written about our practice of praying the St. Michael Prayer after Mass each day and will again make available a summary explanation and more prayer cards. (There is a slightly different version than our own on p. 282 in the white books in the pew racks.) People have been edified by this practice, and suffice it to say, anything we can do to help combat the evil rampant in our world is a good and worthy thing.

God bless you, Fr. Kelly

CHECK OUT WHAT'S HAPPENING AT ST. PAUL'S

FOOD PANTRY

The food pantry has been blessed with an abundance of fresh produce over the past few months, thanks to the farms that donate to our food rescue partners. Everyone has been leaving with full bags and there has usually been some left to fill the free fridge across the street. Availability of pantry items has been somewhat variable. We need cold cereal, oatmeal (canisters and flavored instant), granola bars and cereal bars, fruit cups, quarts of shelf stable milk (dairy as well as almond, oat, or other non-dairy varieties), rice, coffee, flavored or herbal tea, and soup. We have more than enough pasta, pasta sauce, macaroni and cheese, canned beans, and canned tomatoes. As a reminder, we give each guest a complete package so we are requesting standard size packages as opposed to large ones (60 granola bars, a giant canister of coffee, etc.).

MASS INTENTIONS AT ST. PAUL'S

Mass Intentions for daily and weekend Masses are being accepted. Masses may be offered to remember those who have died, for those who are ill, as well as in thanksgiving for a birthday, anniversary or for a special intention. Please contact Nancy in the Parish Office during the week for details and to reserve a particular Mass.

SANCTUARY LAMP

The Sanctuary Lamp, which burns for eight days and nights at the tabernacle, symbolizes the presence of Christ and marks the boundaries of holy space in the Church. If you are interested in learning how to donate a Sanctuary Lamp, contact Nancy at 617.491-8400 ext. 303.

MEDITATIONS BEFORE MASS

The Guardini reading group is currently reading The Lord. If you are interested, please join us at 10:30am on Sundays in the Bishop Boles Conference for about twenty minutes.

MONDAY PRAYER GROUP

The group meets on Mondays, starting at 1:00pm, by telephone. The number to call at 1 pm is 978-990-5000, and the number to enter when prompted is 701118. We read and discuss the Scripture readings of the day, then offer prayers for one another.
