FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Dear Friends,

Believe it or not, next Sunday, April 2, is Palm Sunday! For planning purposes, please remember that the 9:30am Mass is changed to 9:00am to allow for the added dimensions which take place during this beautiful liturgy. Also, weather permitting, the 11:00am Mass will begin in the courtyard for the Procession of Palms for those who are willing and able!

We continue our time together for Lenten Community Lunches on Wednesdays at noon, along with Confession on Wednesday evening from 6:30pm-8:00pm (in addition to our regularly scheduled offerings.) Also, many people have been joining us for Stations of the Cross on Friday evenings from 5:30pm to 6:00pm. It would be great if you might be able to come to any and all of these opportunities!

Thank you for your participation in the Catholic Appeal. If you did not have a chance to pledge yet online or through the envelopes provided for this purpose (which can be put in the Offertory basket), please do so. Our goal is $78,500, and your help supports Cardinal Seán in his outreach to serve the people of the Archdiocese through many programs and administrative offices (which assist us regularly here at St. Paul's to do our work!)

There are envelopes available in the vestibule for contributing towards our decorations for flowers at Easter. Also, if you wanted to donate towards the additional musicians for Easter Sunday or for the Easter Candle, especially in memory of or to honor a loved one, please feel free to talk with Fr. Kelly or Nancy in the front office.

We invite you to a timely presentation entitled Rough Sleepers, a discussion about homelessness, with renowned activists Tracy Kidder and Dr. Jim O'Connell, on Tuesday, March 28 at 5:00pm at First Parish Church in Harvard Square.

Fr. Kelly
