

Grace grew up in Southern China and converted to Christianity during her college years. She has a Bachelor of Arts (major in philosophy and education) from The University of Auckland, New Zealand and a Graduate Diploma in Theology from Laidlaw College in New Zealand. She served in pastoral ministry in various Protestant denominations in both New Zealand and China for almost a decade before entering the Catholic Church in 2021.

In 2023, Grace completed her Master of Arts in Theological Studies (MATS) at Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary. She is currently studying towards a Master of Theology (ThM) at Boston College Clough School of Theology and Ministry.