FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Dear Friends,

The Church understands human nature so very well!! That is why this Sunday, called Laetare Sunday (Rejoice!) comes mid-way through Lent to give a boost and lift during our penances, prayers, almsgiving and fasting. The shift from purple to rose is meant to point to the bright Light of the Resurrection and the victory to be won in Christ. Take a deep breath, re-commit to your Lenten promises, and prepare for the glories ahead.

Thank you for your participation in beginning the Catholic Appeal last week. If you did not have a chance to pledge yet online or through the envelopes provided for this purpose, please do so. Our goal is $78,500, and your help supports Cardinal Seán in his outreach to serve the people of the Archdiocese through many programs and administrative offices (which assist us regularly here at St. Paul's to do our work!)

Our St. Paul's Choir Boys will be singing at Symphony Hall this week in the Stravinsky Persephone. Check out the BSO schedule! You might also consider obtaining a copy of our Choir School's most recent CD, entitled Requiem. Its meditative and magnificent music by Gabriel Faure, as well as by our own Music Director James Kennerley, will be sure to inspire you during this holy season. Copies are available through the Parish Office, the Choir School website, and all major platforms.

We continue our wonderful series: Conversations with Catholic Scholars and Scientists this Thursday, March 23 at 7:00pm in The Harvard Catholic Center. All are welcome! This week, parishioner Eric Jacobsen, professor of organic chemistry, will be our featured guest. I also encourage you to tune into a webinar on Tuesday, March 21 at 7:00pm through St. John's Seminary, presented by parishioner Kasey Kimball on "The Eucharist and Healing." How blessed we are to have so many opportunities for intellectual growth in our faith here at St. Paul's!

There are envelopes available in the vestibule for contributing towards our decorations for flowers at Easter. Also, if you wanted to donate towards the additional musicians for Easter Sunday or for the Easter Candle, especially in memory of or to honor a loved one, please feel free to talk with Fr. Kelly or Nancy in the front office.

The Feast of St. Joseph has been moved to Monday this year because March 19 falls on a Sunday. By God's grace, devotion to St. Joseph has continued to return to its important place over the past 10 or 15 years. Visit our St. Joseph altar and panels of his life and death in the front left side of our church. Reflect on his life, pray the Litany of St. Joseph, and as the Church has always encouraged us: "Ite ad Iosef!" "Go to Joseph!"

As St. Paul enjoins us this week (and always!) "Live as children of light."

God bless, Fr. Kelly

LENTEN SERIES: CONVERSATIONS WITH CATHOLIC SCHOLARS AND SCIENTISTS

Thursday March 23, 7:00pm

Student Lounge, Harvard Catholic Center

Eric Jacobsen, Sheldon Amory Professor of Organic Chemistry and former Chair of the Department of Chemistry and Chemical Biology, discusses how Catholic faith has influenced his life choices, fields of research, teaching, and interactions with colleagues and students. Professor Jacobsen directs a research group of 20-25 graduate students and postdocs dedicated to discovering useful catalytic reactions, and to applying state-of-the-art mechanistic and computational techniques to the analysis of those reactions. Questions and conversation will follow, and refreshments will be served. Join us! All are welcome.

EASTER FLOWERS

It has long been the custom here at St. Paul's to request donations to help defray the cost for the plants and flowers that grace our beautiful church during the Easter season. Easter flower envelopes are available in the vestibule. Donations should be made payable to St. Paul Parish, indicating that the check is for flowers. Thank you.

AT ST. PAUL'S

FOOD PANTRY

As we begin Lent, parishioners may want to donate to the food pantry as part of your almsgiving. While our shelves are overflowing with pasta and canned beans, other items are in high demand. Now that our inexpensive source of shelf stable milk is no longer available, we have an urgent need for quart-size containers of milk (Parmalat, Natrel, or similar). Other items that would be particularly helpful at this time include canned peaches and pears, coffee, mayonnaise, jelly, salad dressing, crackers, granola bars/cereal bars, peanuts, canisters of plain oatmeal, cooking oil, and flour. However, all items are welcome as a greater selection allows us to accommodate different dietary needs and cultural preferences.

MASS INTENTIONS AT ST. PAUL'S

Mass Intentions for daily and weekend Masses are being accepted. Masses may be offered to remember those who have died, for those who are ill, as well as in thanksgiving for a birthday, anniversary or for a special intention. Please contact Nancy in the Parish Office during the week for details and to reserve a particular Mass.

SANCTUARY LAMP

The Sanctuary Lamp, which burns for eight days and nights at the tabernacle, symbolizes the presence of Christ and marks the boundaries of holy space in the Church. If you are interested in learning how to donate a Sanctuary Lamp, contact Nancy at 617.491-8400 ext. 303.

MEDITATIONS BEFORE MASS

The Guardini reading group is currently reading The Lord. If you are interested, please join us at 10:30am on Sundays in the Bishop Boles Conference for about twenty minutes.
