FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Dear Friends,

We are blessed to have such reverent Masses here at St. Paul's, in such a beautiful church. Let me thank all those who serve at the altar and as Eucharistic ministers, lectors, ushers, and those who help to organize and clean. Might you, dear reader, find yourself drawn to help with one of these? Just let Nancy know in the main office or speak with one of the priests or deacons.

We are also a parish blessed with superb music. This past week, our wonderful Parish Choir offered a tremendous concert which was both musically uplifting and a great source of prayerful inspiration. Many thanks to Associate Director (and future Director) of Music, Brandon Straub, to Organ Scholar Michael Thekaekara (who will graduate from Xavierian High School in a few weeks), and to the dedicated women and men of the choir.

The Harvard Catholic Forum, in conjunction with the Choir School, then offered a fine presentation in honor of our Blessed Mother. It was a wonderful way to prepare for the month of May, when we offer special acts of devotion to Our Lady. Please note in your calendars a concert by the Choir Boys and Schola on Sunday, May 12 at 3:00pm, which is Mother's Day. What a way to celebrate this special occasion!

God bless,
Fr. Kelly
