ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear Friends,

We have just completed a run of beautiful feasts and Solemnities: Ascension, Pentecost, Holy Trinity, and Corpus Christi. Any one of these could provide prayer and reflection for a lifetime, but taken together? The Lord is good. We look forward to the Sundays in Ordinary Time that will guide us through the summer.

The Choir School began its summer break this past week. Just before we sent the boys racing out of the courtyard, we got the wonderful news that St. Paul's Choir School was voted the Best Faith-Based Middle School in Boston! Congratulations to the staff, with a particular shout out to Mr. Patrick Moran, Vice-Principal; in addition to his many responsibilities, he served as coordinator and liaison for this project. Mr. Moran is also the Enrollment Director, so if you know any boys and families who may be a good fit for our unique curriculum of music, academics, faith, and character development, please let us know. Could I also add that we could use some financial assistance? Our Requiem recording and recent trip to Italy stretched our resources. If you or someone you know would like to help offset some of our bills, I would be most grateful!

I continue to remind folks about the regular but simple ways you can be part of parish life: have Mass offered for loved ones and special intentions; sponsor the Vigil Candle that stands next to the tabernacle, alerting people to Jesus' Eucharistic presence there. Also, with summer on the way, we are always looking for help with outreach to those in need, lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, and in a pressing way, for ushers.

Let me welcome new parishioners who are with us at St. Paul's. Whether this is a longer stay, or you are here for the summer for study, an internship, or other purpose, we are happy to have you here. Please see our website for summer activities or speak with any of the priests. You are also encouraged to serve, even for a short time, in the roles mentioned above...we have many opportunities here!

Finally, we pray for all our fathers on Father's Day, both living and deceased. In Jesus' life, His relationship with His Almighty Father and with St. Joseph were of prime importance, an indication of the significance of this title and role.

God bless you, Fr. Kelly

FOOD PANTRY

The shelves in the food pantry are noticeably emptier than usual. We are hoping that parishioners can help us restock them. We rarely ask for pasta because we usually have more than we need, but our supply is currently very limited. Please also consider donating cereal, oatmeal, shelf stable milk, crackers, granola bars, rice, jelly/jam, fruit cups, applesauce, pasta sauce, or coffee. If you are interested in shopping for the pantry and submitting receipts for reimbursement, please contact Tara Lauriat at tll7997@yahoo.com. We receive monetary donations for this purpose.
