THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Dear Friends,

What a full but exciting week we've had! Several weddings and concerts, a successful series of events for our Harvard alumni, and the beautiful celebration of the Solemnity of Pentecost. We also had our last Choir School Parent Guild Meeting for the academic year, as well as our final Parish Council meeting before a well-earned summer respite. Thanks to all who serve the parish in so many ways.

This week, we will honor our graduating 8th graders in the choir school with Class Night on Wednesday, and Graduation on Thursday (6:00pm in the church...all are invited). This group has been a real blessing, and their time here had benefitted the parish, Choir School and Harvard Catholic Center in a multitude of ways. We offer them and their families our thanks and prayers.

I am very happy to announce that Mr. Owen Reid has accepted the role of Assistant Music Director here at St. Paul's. For our parish and our school, this is a significant position. He will lead the Parish Choir, teach in our school, train our pre-choristers, and accompany the famous choir of Men and Boys each Sunday, weekdays, and at concerts and special events. He comes with a rich background, and we look forward to his joining us in mid-July. Welcome, Owen!

With that, I would like to extend a warm invitation for people to join our 9:30am Sunday Parish Adult Choir. This committed group plays a vital role in the liturgical life of St. Paul's. Longtime member Andy Griswold will offer a few words of encouragement at the 9:30am Mass this Sunday, and other choir members will be available following the Mass to answer any questions. Many have joined the parish and found a supportive community and come to deeper faith through this group. Please join us!!

Next Sunday, June 19, we will celebrate the Feast of Corpus Christi, the Body and Blood of Christ. As we complete the Year of the Eucharist, we will conclude the 11:00am Mass with a Eucharistic Procession around our neighborhood, assisted by the Cambridge police holding back traffic. (With the procession and Benediction back in the church, it should last about 25 minutes.) Please reach out and invite family and many friends to come for the Mass (the last with the Choir boys before the summer) and the procession. I would love to see all age groups participating, including families and baby carriages; we want it to be a full and vibrant witness to our devotion to the Eucharistic Lord! The Harvard students have already left campus, so let's fill their spots, and more.

This weekend, we celebrate the great Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, so foundational to every dimension of our Catholic faith. Every time we bless ourselves, we proclaim this!

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, Fr. Kelly

EUCCHARISTIC CONGRESS - JESUS IS HERE

The Archdiocese of Boston is closing the Year of the Eucharist with a day-long Eucharistic Congress, Jesus Is Here, at the Tsongas Center in Lowell, MA on Saturday, June 18. The event will include adoration, a procession, and multiple speakers including Cardinal Seán and Bishop Robert Barron. Tickets are through the Archdiocese website.

PARISH CHOIR LOOKING FOR SINGERS

The Parish Choir which sings at the 9:30am Sunday Mass is looking for singers. If you can carry a tune and read music or quickly learn it by ear, we invite you to explore this group. In addition to fostering your love of music, the choir is a fun and friendly group. Choir members will be in the vestibule after the 9:30am Mass on Sunday, June 12 to answer your questions. If you can't meet them on 6/12, contact info@stpaulparish.org with your questions.

FAITH IN ACTION, IT ALL STARTS WITH YOU

We are so grateful to all of you who have helped launch a successful 2022 Catholic Appeal campaign here at St. Paul's. If you have not had a chance to do so, please consider making your gift to the Appeal today by picking up an envelope at the back of the church or make an on-line donation at www.bostoncatholicappeal.org. Participation from every household in the parish is important and every gift makes a meaningful difference in putting faith into action to support the parishes, schools, and communities within our Archdiocese. And once we reach our goal, a portion of the funds will be returned to St. Paul's. Thank you.

MEDITATIONS BEFORE MASS

Join us in a reading of Romano Guardini's, Meditations before Mass. Meetings take place at 10:30am in Room 203. Feel free to attend as often as your schedule allows – each meditation is meaningful on its own. All are welcome.

FOOD PANTRY

The generosity of our parishioners is truly a blessing that contributes to the success of the food pantry. A regular guest recently mentioned that we give out a lot of bread so it is nice to have some jam to put on it. There was only one jar left to offer so we are hoping to replenish our supply. Packaged lentils with masala and similar ethnic items have also been very popular recently. Other priorities are canisters of oatmeal, pasta sauce, salad dressing, salsa, rice, dried fruit, nuts, and trail mix.

MASS INTENTIONS AT ST. PAUL'S

Mass Intentions for daily and weekend Masses are being accepted. Masses may be offered to remember those who have died, for those who are ill, as well as in thanksgiving for a birthday, anniversary or for a special intention. Please contact the Parish Office during the week for details and to reserve a particular Mass.

SANCTUARY LAMP

The Sanctuary Lamp, which burns for eight days and nights at the tabernacle, symbolizes the presence of Christ and marks the boundaries of holy space in the Church. If you are interested in learning how to donate a Sanctuary Lamp, contact Nancy at (617) 491-8400 ext. 303.

ENCOUNTER SCHOOL OF MINISTRY
EAST COAST ENCOUNTER CONFERENCE

The Encounter School was established to teach, equip, and activate disciples to demonstrate the love of God through the power of the Holy Spirit in their spheres of influence. To inaugurate the opening of the Boston campus, we will host an East Coast Encounter Conference, June 23-25, at St. Camillus in Arlington, MA. For info and registration details, visit, www.encounterministry.org.

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Life can leave us feeling very distracted and detached. Perhaps this is why many people seek things that make them "feel good," wrongly believing those things actually provide a sense of meaning and purpose. In truth, they are simply more distractions. When we discover real silence, we can realize that the stirrings and impulses in our hearts desiring connection, meaning, and purpose are really God desperately trying to pull us toward His Divine Heart. Once we submit to God's pull, we are led to the beauty of God's presence. This holy presence carries us to the heights of mountains, the vastness of ocean depths, the beginning of things and their end, and the majesty of universal wonder. We meet the Father. Then, gently carried to the tenderness of compassion, love, mercy, and forgiveness we touch the innocence and vulnerability of life. We see the poor and those who are broken. We meet the Son. Finally, we are directed toward the seasons that change, the ebb and flow of life, the inspirations that surprise, and the wonder, awe, and joy of life. We embrace the Holy Spirit.
